

Collecting:

The Collection Division consists of the Current and Delinquent collections sections and the Customer Service section. Current collections pertains to tax bills that are within the allotted time frame for being paid. The Delinquent Collections section works to collect any and all property tax bills that are past-due. Taxpayers may pay tax bills in the office located in the Historic Courthouse, by mailing the payment either directly to the Moore County Tax Department or the BB&T Lockbox address in Charlotte, or on-line.

Percentage Allocation of Property Tax Dollars

